

The Royal Commission on Social Policy April Report 1988

THE ROYAL COMMISSION ON SOCIAL POLICY APRIL REPORT 1988	1
The full text of the Royal Commission on Social Policy	1
VOLUME 1 THE APRIL REPORT	1
VOLUME 3 FUTURE DIRECTIONS PART 1 ASSOCIATED PAPERS.....	7
VOLUME III FUTURE DIRECTIONS AND ASSOCIATED PAPERS Part 11	14
VOLUME IV SOCIAL PERSPECTIVES	19
List of commissioners, staff and chapter authors	25

The full text of the Royal Commission on Social Policy

The content is held at the National Library. The giant PDFs can be downloaded to your local PC and can then be searched. The National Library catalogue notes that there is 'no known copyright'.

- The April report : Volume 1 Link Open Access
- The April report : Volume 2 Link Open Access
- The April report : Volume 3 .1 Link Open Access
- The April report : Volume 3.2 Link Open Access
- The April report : Volume 4 Link Open Access

VOLUME 1 THE APRIL REPORT

Summary

Warrants

Letters of Transmittal

Preface

Social Policy in New Zealand: An Historical Overview

The People of New Zealand

The Voice of the People An Analysis of Submissions

Attitudes and Values: A New Zealand Survey 1987

A Chronological Narrative of the Inquiry

<ends>

SOCIAL POLICY IN NEW ZEALAND: AN HISTORICAL OVERVIEW 1

W. H. Oliver

I The Nineteenth Century

II The Early Twentieth Century

III The Later Twentieth Century

THE PEOPLE OF NEW ZEALAND

47

Department of Statistics

1. Population Growth
2. Fertility
3. Mortality
4. International Migration
5. Population Age Structure
6. Ethnic and Cultural Diversity of Population
7. Geographic Distribution of Population
8. Internal Migration
9. Labour Force
10. Marriage and Marriage Dissolution
11. Family and Household Structure
12. Children
13. Solo Parents
14. The Unemployed
15. The Elderly

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

201

An Analysis of Submissions to the Royal Commission

1. What Happened to the Submissions
2. A Quantitative Analysis of the Submissions
3. An Analysis of Different Types of Submissions
4. What the People Said in the Submissions

ATTITUDES AND VALUES

397

A New Zealand Survey 1987 Department of Statistics

1. Survey Results
 2. Explanatory Notes
- Appendix A: Household Form
Appendix B: Personal Questionnaire
Appendix C: Study of Non-Respondents

A CHRONOLOGICAL NARRATIVE OF THE INQUIRY

701

1. Establishment
2. Beginnings: February 1987
3. Early Days: March/April 1987
4. The First Visits: May/June 1987
5. In Wellington: July to September 1987
6. The Second Travel Period: October/November 1987

7. December 1987
8. January 1988
9. Towards the April Report

Volume II FUTURE DIRECTIONS: AN INTRODUCTION

Summary

Iwi

The Treaty of Waitangi Direction for Social Policy

Te Tiriti O Waitangi He Tohutohu: Te Kaupapa Mō Ngā Ahuatanga-ā-Iwi

Women and Social Policy Part I Māori Women

Women and Social Policy Part II

The Inter-relationship of Economic and Social Policy

Social Wellbeing

Work

Outcomes of Social and Economic processes

The Funding of Social Provision

Income Maintenance and Taxation

Social Provision: Access and Delivery

Policy Development, Assessment and Monitoring

<ends>

Introduction

3

1 Introduction

2 The Standards and Foundations Papers

3 Terms of Reference

THE TREATY OF WAITANGI 25

Directions for Social Policy

1. Introduction

2. The Authority of the Treaty of Waitangi

3. Provisions under the Treaty of Waitangi

4. The Treaty of Waitangi and Principles for Social Policy

5. The Treaty of Waitangi and Social Policy Objectives

6. Summary of Conclusions

Appendices

TE TIRITI O WAITANGI

89

1. He Tohutohu: Te Kaupapa Mō Ngā Ahuatanga ā Iwi 1 Ngā Kupu Whakataki

2. Te Mana o te Tiriti o Waitangi

3. Ngā Whakahau o ke Tiriti

4. Te Tiriti o Waitangi me ngā Tikanga e pā ana kite Kaupapa mo ngā Āhuatanga ā Iwi
5. Te Tiriti o Waitangi me ōna Tumanako mō ngā Ahuatanga ā Iwi
6. Te Whakarapopototanga

WOMEN AND SOCIAL POLICY

153

Part I Maori Women

1. Introduction
2. Mana Wahine
3. Economic and Personal Wellbeing
4. Summary of Conclusions
- References

Part II (Women as a group)

1. Introduction
 - a. Facts and Gaps
 - b. Women's Economic Wellbeing
 - c. Women's Personal Wellbeing
 - d. Women with Disabilities
 - e. Lesbians
 - f. Summary of Conclusions
 - g. Select Bibliography

THE INTER-RELATIONSHIP OF ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL POLICY

275

Part I

1. Introduction
2. The Objective of Economic and Social Policy: Economic and Social Wellbeing
3. Distribution
4. Time
5. Place
6. Individuals as Economic and Social Beings
7. A Typology of Policy Approaches

Part II

8. Policy Interactions in Practice
9. Section on Summary Statistics
10. Matrix of Interactions
11. Case studies of key interactions
12. Macro-economic Policy
13. Structural Reform

- 14. Equal Pay
- 15. Maori Development
- 16. Immigration
- 17. The Disincentive Effects of Unemployment Benefit

Part 111

- 18. General Conclusions and Recommendations
- 19. Annex A Efficiency in Achieving Socially Valued Outcomes
- 20. Annex B Relevant Submissions
- Bibliography

SOCIAL WELLBEING 447

- 1. Introduction
- 2. A Working Definition
- 3. The Submissions
- 4. Other Working Papers-
- 5. Other Areas of the Commission's Work
- 6. Social Wellbeing and Social Policy
- 7. Conclusions

WORK 475

- 1. Introduction
- 2. The Significance of Work
- 3. Work Trends
- 4. Economic Policy and Work
- 5. International Comparisons
- 6. Links between Paid and Unpaid Work
- 7. Unemployment and Active Labour Market Policies
- 8. Elimination of Inequalities
- Bibliography

OUTCOMES OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC PROCESSES 599

- 1. Introduction
- 2. Historical Perspectives
- 3. New Zealand Society Today
- 4. Submissions
- 5. Issues, Trends and Options
- 6. Summary of Conclusions
- Appendix
- References

THE FUNDING OF SOCIAL PROVISION 655

1. Introduction
2. The Role of Markets
3. Public Goods
4. Merit Goods
5. Insurance Alternatives
6. Taxation
7. Group Provision
8. Voluntary Provision
9. Integrating Public and Private Provision
10. Conclusion

INCOME MAINTENANCE AND TAXATION 725

Summary: Agenda for Reform

1. Introduction
2. The Role of Income Maintenance and Taxation Systems in Social Policy
3. Objectives of Income Maintenance
4. Principles Designed to Achieve the Objectives
5. Criteria Applied in Balancing the Principles
6. Eligibility for Income Support
7. Amount of Support
8. The Social Security System
9. Families with Children
10. The Sick, the Injured and the Disabled
11. The Elderly
12. Conclusion

SOCIAL PROVISION: ACCESS AND DELIVERY 771

1. Introduction
2. Responsibility for Social Provision
3. Framework of Principles
4. Conclusions

POLICY DEVELOPMENT, ASSESSMENT AND MONITORING 813

Part I Public Participation

I Creating Effective Democracy

1. The Context for Public Participation
2. The Elements of Participatory Democracy
3. The Role of Intermediate Organisations

II Policy Formation

1. Policy Development in Central Government
2. Policy Development in Local Government
3. Policy Formation and the Voluntary Sector
4. Policy and the Private Sector
5. Accountability
6. Information and Access
7. Assessment and Monitoring
8. Co-ordination

III New Directions

1. Participation
 2. Policy Making and Maori Development
 3. Public Institutions
- Summary and Conclusions

Part 2 Assessment and Monitoring of the Social Impact of Policies

1. Introduction
 2. Social Impacts of Policies
 3. Political Analysis
 4. Official Statistics
 5. Summary and Conclusions
- Bibliography

VOLUME 3 FUTURE DIRECTIONS PART 1 ASSOCIATED PAPERS

Summary

Standards and Foundations

Policy Māori Ngā Tikanga Me Ngā Ritenga O Te Ao Standards and Foundations of Maori Society
Standards and Foundations for Social Policy

The Treaty of Waitangi

Te Reo o Te Tiriti Mai Ra Ano The Treaty Always Speaks
Ngā Take i Puawai Mai i Ngā Wānanga Issues Raised in the Discussions

Women

Statistical Profile of Women in New Zealand

Social Wellbeing

Objective Measures of Social Wellbeing
Me Āro ki te hā o te Tangata Let the People Speak
Restructuring The State: Restructuring Society
What the Novelists See
The S-Factor: Taha Wairua

The World We Have Gained
The Negative Mirror: Social Wellbeing as Reflected in the Philosophy of Normalisation
Te Hono ki te Wairua The Spiritual Link
Work
Statistical Profile of Work in New Zealand
Wage Determination
Labour Market Policy and New Zealand's Welfare State
 An Overview of Developments Since World War II
Active Labour Market Policies
The Placement Service and Benefit System
Regional Policy
Evaluation of Employment Programmes A Background Paper

<ends>

Standards and Foundations

NGĀ TIKANGA ME NGĀ RITENGA O TE AO MĀORI Standards and Foundations of Māori Society 3

Mānuka Henare

He Timatanga - Introduction
Te Tiriti o Waitangi
 Ngā Paiaka o Te Māoritanga-The Roots of Māoritanga
Te Whanau,
Te Hapū,
Te Iwi,
Te Waka
Whanaungatanga
Te Wairuatanga
Mana Māori
Ngā Pou Mana
The Relationship Between Christianity and Ngā Tikanga Me Ngā Ritenga
(Māori Values)
Conclusion

STANDARDS AND FOUNDATIONS FOR SOCIAL POLICY

43

Maxine Barrett

Introduction
Social Justice
Desert and Rights Justice
Justice
Human Rights
Freedom and Equality

The Treaty of Waitangi TE REO O TE TIRITI MAI RANO

79

The Treaty Always Speaks

Mānuka Henare and Edward Douglas

He Mihi

Foreword

1. Te Mana o Te Tiriti o Waitangi - The Authority of the Treaty of Waitangi
2. The Obligations of the Crown under the Treaty
3. The Pursuit of Partnership, Good Faith and Mutual Trust
4. The Position of Pākehā, Pacific Islanders and Members of other Minority Cultures in New Zealand, as Determined by the Treaty
5. The Relationship Between the Status of Tangata Whenua and the Notion of Equality of all Citizens
6. The Responsibility of the Crown to Protect the Tribal Domain and Fisheries and Sacred Places
7. The Protection and Development of Maori Human Resources and other Taonga such as Language
8. The Pursuit of Maori Autonomy
9. Support for Māori Social Organisations especially Whanaunga, Hapū, Iwi
10. Adequate Electoral Representation of Māori which will Ensure Partnership
11. The Outcomes of Administrative, Political and Judicial Processes as they Affect Maori Individually and Collectively

Appendix I

Appendix II

NGA TAKE I PUAWAI MAI I NGĀ WĀNANGA

221

Issues Raised in the Discussions

Edward Douglas and Mānuka Henare

1. Wānanga Tuatahi, Te Upoko O Te Ika Wellington, 20 January 1988
 2. Wānanga Tuarua, Okawa Bay Rotoiti, 22 January 1988
 3. Wānanga Tuatoru, Otauahi Christchurch, 24 January 1988
 4. Wānanga Tuawha, Tamaki Makaurau Auckland, 26 January 1988
 5. Wānanga Tuarima, Tamaki Makaurau Auckland, 21 January 1988
- Appendix 1: The Treaty of Waitangi Mira Szaszy 21 January 1988

Appendix 2: Maori Children and the Courts Judge H. K. Kingston

Appendix 3:

The 12 Issues

Women

Christine Cheyne

1. Introduction
2. Ethnic Diversity
3. Age Structure
4. Fertility
5. Mortality
6. Family Formation
7. Marriage Dissolution
8. Household Composition
9. Labour Force Participation
10. Female Unemployment
11. Total Income of Women and Men
12. Sources of Income
13. Migration
14. Education and Training
15. Conclusion

OBJECTIVE MEASURES OF SOCIAL WELLBEING

343

Social Wellbeing

Peter Davis

- Developing a System
- Using Social Indicators
- Comparing Social Groups

ME ARO KI TE HĀ O TE TANGATA

363

Let The People Speak

L. C. T. Dyall and J. M. Keith

Let the People Speak Mē Aro kite hā o te Tangata

1. Voice: Mana O Te Reo, Kia Tū Tangata
2. Choice: Kia Ōrite Te Tangata
3. Safe Prospect: Hauora

Linkages

Conclusion

RESTRUCTURING THE STATE: RESTRUCTURING SOCIETY

405

Margy-Jean Malcolm

1. Introduction
2. Impact on the Social Wellbeing of Individual Workers
3. Basis of Government Intervention
4. Conclusion

WHAT THE NOVELISTS SEE

425

Janet McCallum

Land/Environment
Urban/Rural
Conservation
People
Race Relations
Values
Work
Families
Access to Services
Education
Leisure Activities
National Identity
The Arts
Spiritual Values
Personal
Access to Power
The Writer's Role
The Future
Summary

THE S-FACTOR: TAHA WAIRUA

449

The Dimension of the Human Spirit

Catherine Benland

Clarifying the Indefinable
A Reality
The Conflict in Methodology
The Terms of Reference of the Royal Commission
Reporting the S-Factor
Links Between the S-Factor and Social Policy
Conclusion
Appendix

THE WORLD WE HAVE GAINED

461

Normalisation of Care in the Community for the Disabled

M. J. Blaszyk

A Principled Alternative to Institutions
Opportunities and Challenges for Change
Conclusion

THE NEGATIVE MIRROR	481
Social Wellbeing as Reflected in the Philosophy of Normalisation Robin McKinlay
 TE HONO KI TE WAIRUA	 489
The Spiritual Link: A Māori Perspective on the Spiritual Dimensions Of Wellbeing Kuni Jenkins
1. Introduction
2. What is the Spiritual Dimension?
3. Spiritual Principles
4. Consequences of Diminished Spiritual Awareness
5. Suggested Changes to Decision- Making Process
Conclusion
Work
 STATISTICAL PROFILE OF WORK	 499
List of Tables and Figures
Tables and Figures
Bibliography
Glossary of Abbreviations and Terms
 WAGE DETERMINATION	 535
Deborah Mabbett
Recent History of Labour Market Policy
The Responsiveness of Wages to Unemployment
Wage Structure
Application to New Zealand
Wage Flexibility and Low Pay
Social Policy Implications of Low Pay
Conclusion
 LABOUR MARKET POLICY AND NEW ZEALAND'S WELFARE STATE	 563
An Overview of Development Since World War II Deborah Mabbett
Introduction: Full Employment and Social Policy
Economic Structure and Employment Policy
Problems with the Systems of Protection
Wage Policy
Conclusions

ACTIVE LABOUR MARKET POLICIES 593

Deborah Mabbett

- Introduction
- 1. Market Failure
- 2. Active Labour Market Policies
- Conclusions

THE PLACEMENT SERVICE AND BENEFIT SYSTEM 629

Deborah Mabbett

- How Much Unemployment is Frictional?
- The Placement Services
- 'Targeted' or Universal Placement Assistance?
- The Unemployment Benefit
- Conclusion

REGIONAL POLICY 659

Deborah Mabbett

- Migration
- Migration Propensities and Vulnerability to Unemployment
- Migration Incentives and Government Policy
- Barriers to Migration
- Regional Development and Restructuring Policy
- Wage Flexibility
- Conclusion
- Appendix: Internal and International Migration

EVALUATION OF EMPLOYMENT PROGRAMMES 691

A Background Paper

Geoff Bertram

I The Evaluation Literature

- Recent New Zealand Policy
- Preliminary Classification Of Employment Programmes
- Is Programme Evaluation Really a Good Idea?
- Some Recent Overseas Programme Evaluation Results
- Recent New Zealand Evaluations
- Design of Evaluation Studies
- Where To From Here?

II Four Specific Issues

- The Social and Fiscal 'Costs of Unemployment'

Brenner's Work
Net Fiscal Impact
Labour Market Structure
Hysteresis
Conclusion

VOLUME III FUTURE DIRECTIONS AND ASSOCIATED PAPERS Part 11

Summary

Outcomes of Social and Economic Processes

Housing Issues

The State or the Market: The Impact of Housing Policy on Women

Middle Class Capture: A Brief Survey

How Fair is New Zealand Education?

Fairness in Māori Education

Income maintenance and Taxation

General Considerations

The Social Security System

Families with Children

The Sick, the Injured, and the Disabled

The Elderly

Social Provision: Access and Delivery

Social Policy and the Move to 'Community'

Social Policy and the Move to 'Community' Practical Implications for Service Delivery

Te Reo O Te Tai Tokerau Community Evaluation of a Māori Language Programme

Current Systems of Social Provision in New Zealand A Directory

Policy Development, Assessment and Monitoring

Hapū and Iwi Resources and their Quantification

Assessment and Monitoring The State of the Art

HOUSING ISSUES

3

David H Thorns

Background and Development of Housing Policy

Current Issues

Current Debate on Housing Policy

Links with Other Social Policies

The Impact of Housing Policy on Women

Sophie Watson

Introduction

1. The Housing Crisis in New Zealand
2. Women's Relationship to Housing
3. The Diversity of Women's Housing Needs
4. The State or the Market
5. Recommendations and Housing Initiatives Overseas

Appendix 1: Women's Housing Project Fund:
New Policy Proposals

Geoff Bertram

1. Introduction
2. Is 'Capture' Really the Relevant Concept?
3. Counterfactual Worlds
4. 'Capture' as an Explanatory Hypothesis
5. Director's Law
6. The Egalitarian Critique of the Welfare State
7. Supply-side ('Provider') Capture?
8. Administrative Capture
9. So What is the Problem?

New Zealand Council for Educational Research

1. Fair Education
2. Maori Education
3. Equal Opportunity for Girls and Women
4. Low Socio-Economic Status
5. Pacific Island and Migrant Education
6. Issues in Pacific Island Education
7. Migrant/Multicultural Education
8. The Disabled
9. Rural Education

A Review of Research and Information

Richard Benton

New Zealand Council for Educational Research

Introduction

1. Access to Formal Education and Participation Rates

2. Adequacy of Staffing and Training Provision
3. Pupil/Teacher Ratios and School Size
4. Classroom Practice, Assessment and Promotion
5. The Content and Organisation of the Curriculum
6. Classroom and Institutional Environment
7. Administration
8. Resource Availability and Allocation
9. Costs and Benefits of Centralisation
10. International Comparisons of Expenditure Levels
11. Role of the Private Education Sector
12. Pupil Performance at Private Versus State Schools
13. Outcomes and Redistributive Effects
14. Effects on Social Harmony
15. Alternative Structures
16. Conclusion

Income Maintenance and Taxation

407

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

1. Introduction
 2. The Role of Income Maintenance and
 3. Taxation in Social Policy
 4. A Framework for Future Development
 5. Concerns with the Present System
 6. Broad Issues in the Design of the Income Support System
- Annex 1
- Annex 2

THE SOCIAL SECURITY SYSTEM

455

1. Introduction
 2. Salient Features of the Present System
 3. Current Concerns
 4. Benefit Standardisation
 5. Level of Benefits
 6. Youth
 7. The Unit of Assessment
 8. Conclusion
 9. Recommendations
- Annex I
- Annex II

FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN	533
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Introduction 2. The Objectives of Income Support for Families with Children 3. Concerns with Current Arrangements 4. Family Income Support and the Government Economic Statements in December and February 5. Support for Carers 6. Summary and Recommendations
 THE SICK, THE INJURED, AND THE DISABLED	 569
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Introduction 2. Accident Compensation 3. Sickness and Disability 4. The Priorities 5. Costings 6. Funding 7. Unemployment 8. Summary and Recommendations Annex I Annex II
 THE ELDERLY	 615
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Introduction 2. The Aspirations of the Elderly 3. The Role of the State in Retirement Incomes 4. Issues in the Reform of National Superannuation 5. Public Opinion 6. Some Options for Reform 7. Other Issues 8. Summary and Conclusions Annex Social Provision: Access and Delivery
 SOCIAL POLICY AND THE MOVE TO 'COMMUNITY'	 655
Michael Peters and James Marshall
 SOCIAL POLICY AND THE MOVE TO 'COMMUNITY'	 677
Practical Implications for Service Delivery
Michael Peters and James Marshall
I Treasury's View of Social Policy
II The Notion of Community

III The Arguments for Community-Based Social Policy
IV A Community-Based Social Policy

TE REO O TE TAI TOKERAU

703

Community Evaluation, Empowerment, and Opportunities for Oral Māori
Language Reproduction

Michael Peters and James Marshall

Introduction

Models of Race Relations and Education Policy

School Certificate Oral Maori

Te Reo O Te Tai Tokerau: The Evaluation

National Implementation

CURRENT SYSTEMS OF SOCIAL PROVISION IN NEW ZEALAND

745

A Directory

Grant McAuliffe

Introduction

Social Welfare Services

Immigration

Health Services

Education

Housing

Income

Maintenance

Justice

Transport

Energy

Policy Development, Assessment and Monitoring

HAPU AND IWI RESOURCES AND THEIR QUANTIFICATION

789

Whatarangia Winiata

Iwi and Hapu

Iwi and Hapu Resources and Activity

Conclusion

ASSESSMENT AND MONITORING

805

The State of the Art

Vince Galvin and Penny Fennwick

I Who Monitors and Assesses Government Policy

1. In-House Assessment
2. Independent and Quasi-Independent Assessment of Government Social Policy

II Problems and Issues in Assessment and Monitoring

3. Issues of Social Context
4. Issues about the Way Monitoring and Assessment is Done
5. Summary and Conclusions

VOLUME IV SOCIAL PERSPECTIVES

Summary

Social Perspectives An Introduction
Health
Maori Education for a Just Society
Education
Housing
Justice
Personal Social Services
Energy and Social Policy
Rents in the New Zealand Energy Sector
The Environment
Transport: Access or Isolation
Social Policy and the Media in New Zealand
The Mass Media A Māori Perspective
Recreation and Leisure
Immigration Policy
Towards Ethnic Equality and Diversity
Pacific Island People's Perspectives
Family
Perspectives on the Elderly in New Zealand
Rangatahi: Youth Perspectives
People with Disabilities
Consumer Affairs

<ends>

SOCIAL PERSPECTIVES: AN INTRODUCTION

3

Sir Ivor Richardson

1. 1 Introduction
2. Health

3. Education
4. Housing
5. Justice
6. Personal Social Services
7. Energy
8. The Environment
9. Transport
10. The Mass Media: A Maori Perspective
11. Recreation and Leisure
12. Immigration
13. Ethnic Equality and Diversity
14. Pacific Island Peoples' Perspectives
15. Family
16. The Elderly
17. Youth
18. Disability
19. Consumer Affairs

HEALTH 41

A Brief Historical Overview

Judith Reinken

- 1 A Brief Historical Overview
- 2 Implications of the Move to Area Health Boards
- 3 Issues Raised by Developments in the Health Area

MAORI EDUCATION FOR A JUST SOCIETY 89

Wally Penetito

- 1 Introduction
- 2 The Changing Nature of the Debate on Maori Education
- 3 Policies for Maori Education Versus Maori Education Policies
- 4 Education 'In' Maori 'About' Maori and 'For' Maori
- 5 (not numbered in index) Schools, and a Maori Education Authority
- 6 Conclusions

EDUCATION 115

Cathy Wylie

- 1 Why Education
- 2 Views, Reviews, and Research
- 3 Major Issues
- 4 What Can We Do?
- 5 Specific Issues

HOUSING

149

Campbell Roberts

Introduction

- 1 Housing Policy-A Basis for Social Equity
- 2 Issues of the New Zealand Housing Market
- 3 Delivery of Housing Assistance
- 4 Conclusions and Recommendations

JUSTICE

195

Warren Young and Caroline Bridge

Justice and the Legal System

1. Introduction
2. Access to Justice
3. The Need for Flexibility in the Justice System
4. White-collar and Corporate Crime
5. Sentencing (Punishment and the Police)
6. Victims

Matrimonial Property

7. Introduction
8. Problems with the Matrimonial Property Act 1976
9. The Economic Consequences of Marriage Breakdown
10. Housing and the Matrimonial Property Act
11. Housing and the Needs of Children
12. The Clean Break Principle
13. Housing Options for Women
14. Principles for the Future
15. De Facto Marriages

PERSONAL SOCIAL SERVICES

231

Implications of the Principles of Social Provision

Cody John

- Introduction
- The Royal Commission's Position on Social Provision
- Roles and Responsibilities of the State
- The Organisation of Social Services
- Personal Social Services
- The Way Needs Were Defined
- Subsidiarity and Choice in Decision-Making
- Perspectives
- Providing Services under these Conditions

Monitoring
The Dual Role of the State
Conclusion

ENERGY AND SOCIAL POLICY 251

Molly Melhuish

1. Introduction
2. Concerns about Energy: Is Energy Special?
3. Manaaki: Resource Management
4. Energy Pricing
5. Control and Public Participation

Rents in the New Zealand Energy Sector

Geoff Bertram

Introduction
Differential Rent: Some Simple Economic Theory
Some New Zealand Examples
Conclusion

THE ENVIRONMENT 327

Christine Dann

1. Introduction: A Fair, Just, and Sustainable Society
2. Environment-People
3. People and Environment of New Zealand
4. The Foundations of Policy
5. The Formation of Policy
6. Conclusion

Appendices

TRANSPORT: ACCESS OR ISOLATION? 385

Raewyn Good

1. A: Executive Summary
2. B: Background and Overview
3. C: Key Issues

SOCIAL POLICY AND THE MEDIA IN NEW ZEALAND 455

John Farnsworth

The Cultural Importance of the Media
Broadcasting Deregulation

The Consequences of Deregulation —
Access and Concentration of Ownership
The Print Media
The Film Industry
Recapitulation
Proposals for Broadcasting
Advertising, A Media Bank Concept and Print Media
Conclusion

THE MASS MEDIA : A MAORI PERSPECTIVE 481

Derek Tini Fox

In the Beginning
For the Record
Consider the History
Present Developments
The Way Ahead
He Whakamutunga
Appendix

RECREATION AND LEISURE 505

Grant Cushman and Allan Laidler

1. The Relevance of Recreation and Leisure to Social Policy
2. Recreation in the Social Service Fabric
3. The Economic Significance of Recreation and Leisure
4. The Political Significance of Recreation and Leisure
5. The Standards of The Fair Society
6. Recreation Policy and Strategies for Action
7. Recommendations

IMMIGRATION POLICY 533

Justin Hurrelle

1. Objectives and Considerations Underlying Immigration Policy Formulation
2. The Extent of Interest Group Involvement in Formulating Immigration Policy
3. The Labour Market and Immigration Policy

TOWARDS ETHNIC EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY 561

Finau Kolo

Ethnic Diversity in New Zealand

Issues of Ethnicity —

1. The Legacy of History
2. Immigration Policy
3. Refugees
4. Policies of Support after Arrival
5. Policies for Cultural Maintenance
6. Employment Issues
7. Discrimination - Strategies for change

8. PACIFIC ISLAND PEOPLE'S PERSPECTIVES

573

Kiwi Tamasese, Paula Masoe-Clifford, Sui Ne'emias Garwood

Historical Analysis

Housing

Employment

Income

Levels

Health

Education

Immigration

Women

Recommendations

Appendix

FAMILY

593

Marg Gilling

I What Family Means

II The Family and the State

III Contradictions

IV The Need for Family Policy

PERSPECTIVES ON THE ELDERLY IN NEW ZEALAND

629

Peggy G Koopman-Boyden

1. Theoretical Perspectives on the Elderly-Myth and Reality of Ageing

2. Specific Issues (Arising from Submissions and Research Findings)

3. Summary Viewpoint-Towards a National Policy on Ageing and the Elderly

RANGATAHI: YOUTH PERSPECTIVES

711

National Youth Council

Introduction

Maori Caucus Vision

Pākehā Caucus

Vision

Pacific Island Caucus Vision
Issues/Policies
Appendix I
Appendix II

PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

767

Robyn Hunt

1. Introduction
2. Historical Background
3. Changing Structures and Lack of Co-ordination: Power and Accountability
4. Problems of Defining Disability —
5. Lack of Knowledge About the Disability Community
6. Biculturalism
7. Human rights
8. The Status of Women with Disabilities and Women who are Caregivers
9. Mental Health
10. Funding and the Charity Ethic
11. Public Attitudes and Education
12. Income
13. The Accessible Society
14. Dependence, Independence and Interdependence
15. The State Sector
16. Work and Equal Employment Opportunity
17. Rehabilitation —
18. Issues of Change
19. Conclusion

CONSUMER AFFAIRS

805

Peter Benge .

1. Introduction
2. Consumer Organisation in New Zealand
3. The Rights and Responsibilities of Consumers
4. Disadvantaged Consumers

LIST OF COMMISSIONERS, COMMISSION STAFF AND CHAPTER AUTHORS

Commissioners

Sir Ivor Richardson Chairman

Ann Ballin member

Marion Bruce member

Len Cook member
Mason Durie member
Rosslyn Noonan member

Staff of the Royal Commission

Maxine Barrett
Jugadish Guria
Line Ostler
Joanna Beresford
Trish Hall
Judith Owen
Marianne Bray
Anne Harre
Elizabeth Popplewell
Adele Carpinter
Jim Haugh
Christine Cheyne
Te Aroha Henare
John Rawcliffe
Sandy Clinton
Katie Hennah
Linda Reeves
Len Cook
Joy Hippolite
Wilma Rennie
Jackie Cumming
Julia Humphries
Ann Reweti
Bunt Dasent
Justin Hurrelle
Charles Royal
Te Aue Davis
Lyn Jowett
Tania Samphier
Melissa de Souza Correa
Maree Judson
Dean Stanley
Rahui Katene
Jeanette Sertsou
Shaun Devoy
Robyn Keay
Thakor Valabh

Sylvia Dixon
Graham Barkus
Vince Galvin
Des O'Dea
Grant McAuliffe
Graham Wilson
Ted Douglas
Janet McCallum
Colleen Wineera
Juliet Elworthy
Penny McKay
Clare Wooding
Penny Fenwick
Robin McKinlay
Sandra Young
Ruth Ferris
Patrick Morgan
John Gallacher
Donnella Moss

Authors

W. H. Oliver
Mānuka Henare
Maxine Barrett
Christine Cheyne
L. C. T. Dyll
J. M. Keith
Margy-Jean Malcolm
Janet McCallum
Catherine Benland
M. J. Blaszyk
Robin McKinlay
Kuni Jenkins
Deborah Mabbett
David H Thorns
Sophie Watson
Richard Benton
Michael Peters
James Marshall
Grant McAuliffe
Whatarangia Winiata
Vince Galvin

Penny Fennwick
Sir Ivor Richardson
Judith Reinken
Wally Penetito
Cathy Wylie
Campbell Roberts
Warren Young
Caroline Bridge
Cody John
Molly Melhuish
Geoff Bertram
Christine Dann
Raewyn Good
John Farnsworth
Derek Tini Fox
Grant Cushman
Allan Laidler
Justin Hurrelle
Finau Kolo
Kiwi Tamasese,
Paula Masoe-Clifford,
Sui Ne'emias Garwood
Marg Gilling
Peggy G Koopman-Boyden
Robyn Hunt
Peter Bengé
Mānuka Henare
Edward Douglas
Department of Statistics
Ministry of Women's Affairs